Founder of the world's first private chat service for sales teams.

#ENTREPRENEUR

Hi, I'm Ankesh I am the founder of Let's Chat. We are the world's first private chat service for sales teams.

If your audience feels the pain of emails back and forth and/or missed calls, dragging out the sales cycle, they're going to find massive value in using Let's Chat.

I have been told that I'm too "carefree" for a startup entrepreneur, which makes me a bit of an outlier here in the Valley. I do hustle though but always with integrity.

It would be an honor to speak with you, thanks for the consideration.
