

MEGAN DEVENPORT

Executive Director
buildingbridgesshift.org

#COMMUNITYBUILDER

Building Bridges

Transform brings together diverse young women and gender-expansive youth from Metro Denver high schools for a year-long life changing experience. Together they develop leadership and relationship-building skills like self-awareness, confidence, and empathy that are required for working through conflict and growing together from it.

Podcast Preview

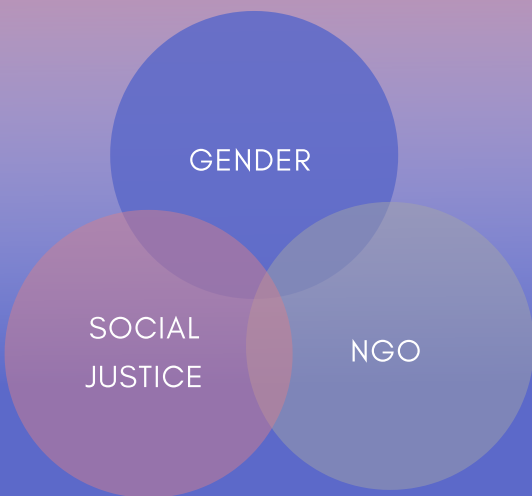

Megan is a community social worker with over 10 years of experience. Her background includes direct service with young people, community-building, and advocacy. Most recently, Megan was the Program Manager for Denver Shared Spaces, helping nonprofits connect commercial real estate with social impact. She has also worked as a counselor with young people and their families.

This varied experience informs her work, and brings to Building Bridges a rich set of skills and expertise that support the organization’s continued growth. Megan received her Masters in Social Work from the University of Denver and her Bachelor’s Degree in psychology from the University of Illinois, Urbana- Champaign.

LETS TALK ABOUT

- Integrating identity and gender with young women.
- Practicing inclusion and equity in your daily life.
- Sex and gender conflict training.

AUDIENCE

FOR PODCAST PLACEMENT

Katie White
(303) 885-8874
katie@kitcaster.com

